

Canadian Chronic Care Network

The Canadian Chronic Care Network (CCCN) is an informal group of researchers, leaders and decision makers within Chronic Disease Prevention and Management. CCCN strives to influence system change throughout Canada for effective and sustainable chronic disease policy and program development.

The Executive committee of CCCN was established in 2007 and is co-chaired by Peter Sargious from the Calgary Health Region and Lynn Edwards from Nova Scotia Health.

For more information or to inquire about a membership, please contact Jennifer Painter at Jennifer.Painter@calgaryhealthregion.ca or at 1-403-561-4212.